

Cancellation of moonSlice Hosting

Please immediately cancel hosting for the domain name: _____

Any domain names 'parked' on top of (pointing to) the above domain name will automatically be cancelled at the same time. If you wish to continue hosting any parked domains as separate hosted accounts, please let us know.

NOTE: Your website will be cancelled immediately upon our receipt of this notice, so prior to submitting this request, please be sure you have downloaded any information and files from your website you may want to keep.

Any unpaid charges for the term will still be due and payable. 5 days notice prior to a new term required, so less notice will automatically continue your hosting charges for an additional term. If you choose to cancel within 2 weeks after the start of a new term, you may use any paid-for, but unused hosting fees towards hosting a new website in the future.
